

2023 LIBERATING THEOLOGIES SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

SACRED RIGHTS, SACRED RITES

Charlotte, NC
September 22 - 23

LIB•ER•ATE

VERB * RELEASE (SOMEONE) FROM A
STATE OR SITUATION THAT LIMITS
FREEDOM OF THOUGHT OR BEHAVIOR.

About FCSJ

Founded in 2009, the Freedom Center for Social Justice (FCSJ) is a culture-shifting organization committed to the growth, safety, and empowerment of marginalized populations. Our vision is a world where equal protections and opportunities exist for all. Through advocacy, community education, and faith-based organizing, we are committed to providing the support that opens doors, raises awareness and creates life-giving change.

About Bishop Rawls

Bishop Tonyia M. Rawls is a national faith leader and social justice activist who has focused most of her work in the Southeastern United States fighting oppression and discrimination. She is the founder and Executive Director of FCSJ, where she launched the 'Do No Harm' Campaign and continues to challenge faith leaders on justice issues ranging from white supremacy to queer liberation.

About LT

The Liberating Theologies Speaker Series is a one-day event featuring theologians who share their radical, culture-shifting interpretations of Biblical texts.

Presented in partnership with Union Theological Seminary, this is an extension of a FCSJ's 'Do No Harm' and 'For Them Too' initiatives that work within faith communities to uplift the voices of the marginalized and dismantle systems of oppression. Counting over 1,000 alumni in its history, LT continues to be an opportunity for learning, advocacy, and community.

Revolutionary Jé Exodus Hooper

An educator of 10 years, in the inner-city schools of New York City, Washington D.C and Baltimore, Maryland; Jé was challenged by the prevalent divide the black and brown community still faced in spite of their solidarity in culture. Much of their planning was dedicated to incorporating unconventional schools of thought—expeditionary learning, performance studies, singing chants, and a developed self-esteem by creating a micro-community that was capable of advocating their own needs.

Jé now serves as a voluntary Associate Director of the Interfaith Temple, an intern of Middle Collegiate Church as the Minister of Education, and on the Interfaith Council with the United Nations.

Rev. Dr. William Barber II

The Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II is the President and Senior Lecturer of Repairers of the Breach; Co-Chair of the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival; Bishop with The Fellowship of Affirming Ministries; Visiting Professor at Union Theological Seminary; and Senior Fellow at Auburn Seminary. For more than a quarter century, he has pastored the Greenleaf Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Goldsboro, North Carolina. Since Rev. Dr. Barber began his ministry at Greenleaf 29 years ago, the church has sponsored efforts that have led to more than $12 million of community development, in addition to welcoming all into the body of Christ. He is the author of four books: We Are Called To Be A Movement; Revive Us Again: Vision and Action in Moral Organizing; The Third Reconstruction: Moral Mondays, Fusion Politics, and The Rise of a New Justice Movement; and Forward Together: A Moral Message For The Nation.

Rev. Angela Tyler-Williams

Rev. Angela Tyler-Williams (She/Her) is Co-Director for Movement Building at SACReD (Spiritual Alliance of Communities for Reproductive Dignity). Angela is a queer pastor ordained by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) into her call to engage people of faith to speak publicly and politically in support of reproductive health, rights, and justice and LGBTQIA+ equality. Angela holds a Master of Divinity from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. The Center for American Progress named Angela as one of the 22 Faith Leaders to Watch in 2022. Angela learned about faith-based community organizing and building people power to create positive social change from the Industrial Areas Foundation. She finds life in experiencing music, listening to podcasts, exploring creation, and engaging in theological discussions that go off the beaten path. She and her wife Adelyn live with Mouse the cat in Washington, DC.

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

PRESENTING

$10,000

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- Full Page spot in the LT Conference Booklet
- Exhibitor Table
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- On-Stage recognition during conference
- 10 Tickets to LT Conference
- Social Media shoutout

ADVOCACY

$5,000

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- 1/2 Page spot in the LT Conference Booklet
- Exhibitor Table
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- On-Stage recognition during conference
- 6 Tickets to LT Conference
- Social Media shoutout

CELEBRATION

$2,500

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- Exhibitor Table
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- On-Stage recognition during conference
- 5 Tickets to LT Conference
- Social Media shoutout

COMMUNITY

$1,000

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- Exhibitor Table
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- On-Stage recognition during conference
- 4 Tickets to LT Conference
- Social Media shoutout

SCHOLARSHIP

$500

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- Naming on 10 provided scholarships to LT
- Social Media shoutout

FREEDOM

$250

- Logo placed on stage signage, banners, posters, and LT Conference Booklet
- Logo in all LT digital marketing and communications
- Social Media shoutout

CONTACT

Gregory Raynor, Director of Development

gregory@fcsj.org

704.942.6264

THANKS TO OUR 2022 LIBERATING THEOLOGIES SPONSORS!

